

SAINT GEORGE CATHOLIC CHURCH

June 23, 2024—Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sometimes we human beings try to play God. We judge other people, forgetting that judgment belongs to God alone. We try to arrange everything according to our plan, forgetting that God disposes everything to His providence. We pick and choose our faith, forgetting that Christ guides the Church in absolute truth. Let us renew our faith in God Who alone is Lord!

First Reading: Job 38: 1, 8-11 - The Book of Job describes a wager between God and Satan. Satan claims that Job served God only because he has everything going his own way. After Job loses everything, he is still faithful to God, but he wonders aloud about God's plan. God reminds Job that no human being was present when He made the universe and the vast seas. God didn't need us then; therefore we should not question God.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 5: 14-17 - It is perfectly normal and natural to seek to be comfortable in this world. It is natural to be close to our friends. It is natural to seek these goals which will immediately satisfy us. But Christ has made us a new creation, a creation which transcends mere nature. Henceforth, we must see all things and all persons in the context of the risen Christ, our Redeemer.

Gospel: Mark 4: 35-41 - Storms brewed up suddenly on Lake Galilee. Yet they could be very intense. The early Church remembered a story of Jesus calming the waves of such a storm. When there were crises in the Church, the Church remembered that Jesus would always protect His beloved disciples; He would calm every storm provided His disciples have faith.

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

YEAR OF PARISH REVIVAL | June 11, 2023 – July 17, 2024

Mystagogy is an ancient form of catechesis (witnessing the faith through word, experience, prayer and liturgy) that helps us to go deeper into the mysteries we celebrate in the sacraments.

A Paschal Mystagogy: The Joy of Trinitarian Adoration

The priest takes the chalice and the paten which hold the Holy Eucharist and lifts both high, for you, for all, to adore. “Through him, with him, and in him, O God, almighty Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, for ever and ever.” For ever and ever, yes—this is what your heart so deeply desires. A love that never ends. A peace that cannot be disrupted. A joy that can only be amplified. You respond from the depths of your heart and with a loud voice, “Amen”—the ancient response of Israel, the only response that can capture your assent. Yes, this is what you want: the greater honor and glory of God.

We have just entered into the great mystery of the Lord’s Passion, Death, and Resurrection, and we look at the raised host and chalice. We prepare to receive the Lord either fully or spiritually. Can we fail to experience the definitive expression of divine love for us? Do we offer ourselves and all that we do through him, with him, and in him?

The Doxology is a moment of summary. It is contained not merely in word but also in the gesture of the priest (or the priest and deacon) who raises the host and chalice for all to see, adore, and recognize the One who saves us. It compels us to recognize what we have celebrated and how we are united to the action of the priest. Our great “amen” is an affirmation of our belief and a recognition of the implications for our daily life.

If we deepen our understanding of the Doxology and the great “amen” that is the assembly’s assent to this summary of our identity and our way of living. We are not “out there” alone, as if we had been cast out on a raft in a swift-moving river. There are challenges; we face some adversity; the Gospel message is demanding and sometimes counter-cultural. We never ignore that challenge. Our eyes are open.
